You Define You.

Here, you can match your current skills to what employers across the state need and apply for training funds to build your skills. You may also discover hidden opportunities as you search hiring trends by region, research training opportunities, and connect with a career planner through the online application for training funds.

Retake control of your career with our online career and training research hub—Idaho LAUNCH.

BEHIND THE SCENES

We asked Idaho employers from every region of the state to complete a detailed survey to identify the most relevant skills that would help applicants to be successful in their industries. Then, we interviewed training providers to match the current course offerings to in-demand skills. And we have partnered with the Idaho Department of Labor and their career planners to provide help for Idahoans looking to find an attainable, quick path to the training they need.
